EXPERIENCE

Leucine - AI for Pharma

Software Development Engineer

May 2025 – Present

Bangalore, India

Tech Stack: React.js, Java, PostgreSQL, Spring Boot

- Architected and delivered end-to-end Acumatica-ERP integration pipeline, owning complete SDLC from design through production deployment, enabling seamless data synchronization between enterprise systems and internal databases.
- Architected and developed from scratch a highly available Kafka-based event streaming pipeline for real-time SAP-to-DWI data integration, processing thousands of events daily with zero data loss. Designed 3-broker cluster with partition-based parallel processing, comprehensive error handling via Dead Letter Queue.
- Engineered multi-layered feature flag subscription system with UI/backend/DB access controls and Stripe webhook integration, enabling automated premium feature gating and real-time subscription upgrades

Leucine - AI for Pharma

Software Development Engineer Intern

Jan 2025 – April 2025

Bangalore, India

Tech Stack: React.js, Java, PostgreSQL

- Implemented advanced GPT-based language models to perform deep semantic analysis of FDA regulatory documents, significantly enhancing interpretive accuracy and entity extraction precision.
- Architected end-to-end Stripe integration for secure subscription billing and real-time transaction dashboards, automating invoice workflows and reducing manual reconciliation.
- Built scalable security and operational controls (Google reCAPTCHA, rate limiting, usage quotas, domain allow/block) and automated data-validation pipelines with ChatGPT-driven checks to strengthen platform security and accelerate operational efficiency.

PERSONAL PROJECTS

Bud-Wiser | Link

Next.js 14, TypeScript, Supabase, React-Query, Tailwind

- Architected secure budget tracking platform with Next.js 14, Supabase RLS policies, and atomic PostgreSQL functions—implementing type-safe Server Actions, Zod validation, and OAuth authentication for zero-trust data access.
- Engineered analytics dashboard with React Query caching and Recharts visualizations, featuring category breakdowns, historical trends, and TanStack Table with sorting, filtering, and CSV export capabilities.
